few days ago with the New York woman stocking variety. The ordinance was corset designer who is seeking to enclose mankind in stays, the assertion was made tions 825, 826, 827, 828 and 829 of the remarking the course of the remarking the re that in that city not a few men already had the "corset habit," and that in the course of a month or two a serious effort would be made to introduce it in several western cities, including Salt Lake. Not alone in Zion, but in other Pacific coast cities, among them San Francisco and Los Angeles, men are to be initiated into the ranks of corset wearers.

An inquiry yesterday among stores and local agents developed that as yet the idea has obtained no footing in Salt Lake. Not that there is any opposition, but the waist exercises might be taken now with profit in order that some grace be given are figure. It would never do, of course, to have a girth of great dimensions and then fall away like a whittled stick toward the neck. And corsets, it is understood, have an unpleasant habit of making the fat wish they were in mother hubbards or some less conventional garb. It is alleged by defenders of the corset that the ranks of the corset fighters are recruited from among those whom nature made "too much of,"

Imagine how ashamed the big, beefy man would feel when he came to get his corset alongside the willowy man with a regular army shape. He'd be only a volunteer in such a fix. Such a specimen would have a sorry time inserting himself in the folds of a straight front. Imagine him trying to tie his shoes or

Of course, when corsets come men must ourse, when corsets come men must up suspenders and garters. These is might be gone into at this time, hey may pass until the corsets. (The round ones are more stylish, no old-time double-enders, held with ety pin are more serviceable), sidered the "swellest looker" of 'em all the his day, and as Venus is much prated of by women who bewait the corset habit, why Apollo. or Polly for short, seems the proper male ally.

A word to wives and daughters: Don't borrow papa's corset strings, give himpointers as to how to avoid being stabbed when a stay comes loose. With these precautions and others which will suggest themselves as the dangers present themselves, it would seem that the innovation will bring no turmoil into the family.

Men Should Prepare.

If the time is coming, Salt Lake men would better prepare. They might as well begin training now so as to feel no embarrassment when the woman of the stays comes around with her tape measure. For, of course, it must be a woman who shall do the fitting, for Salt Lake at present possesses no men qualified for the teask.
